

DEPUTY DIRECTOR OF PROBATION AND COMMUNITY
CORRECTIONS (GROUP C)

DISTINGUISHING FEATURES OF THE CLASS:

This is a management level position in a Group C probation department, serving a jurisdiction, outside New York City (NYC), having a population of greater than 300,000 and no more than 399,999, or containing fifty or more professional probation officer positions at various levels in a department which serves a jurisdiction with a population of less than 400,000. Where the population of the jurisdiction served is greater than 300,000, the position is jurisdictionally classified as non-competitive as specified by Executive Law §257(6)(a). The incumbent assists a Probation Director (Group C) in the administration of the department primarily by supervising and managing the work of Probation Supervisor II/Principal Probation Officers and/or Probation Supervisor I's. The incumbent also assists the Probation Director (Group C) in the planning, organization, direction and coordination of the department. He or she may also directly oversee the activities of a division within the probation department. The work is performed under the general supervision of a Probation Director (Group C) with extensive leeway allowed to exercise independent judgment in carrying out the details of the work. The position of Deputy Probation Director (Group C) typically differs from that of a Deputy Probation Director (Group B or Group D) in that the Deputy Probation Director (Group C) is employed in a larger probation department than a Deputy Probation Director (Group B) and a smaller probation department than a Deputy Probation Director (Group D). A Deputy Probation Director (Group C) is a Peace Officer pursuant to Criminal Procedure Law Section 2.10 and may be authorized to carry a firearm in the performance of his/her duties. The incumbent will perform all related duties as required.
